FinEd @ Hopkins Spring Workshop
Tuesday, April 9 • 4:30 PM
Charles Commons Salon A

This session will focus on credit management and investing, with presentations from the Johns Hopkins Federal Credit Union and JHU faculty, Dr. Yuval D. Bar-Or.

Johns Hopkins Federal Credit Union is a full-service financial institution located in the heart of Baltimore, but serving members around the globe. Founded by a small group of JHU employees in 1971, JHFCU today provides value to a wide range of Hopkins and other organizations. Raven Remlein and Debbie Johnson will present on credit management, including types of credit, loans, and managing credit cards.

Dr. Yuval D. Bar-Or is an award-winning professor and founder of the Pillars of Wealth personal finance literacy initiative for medical professionals. He is an Associate Professor at JHU’s Carey Business School, where he primarily teaches investments and wealth management courses. Yuval is the author of seven books and a former risk management executive with global managerial experience. Yuval holds Ph.D. and M.A. degrees in finance from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, as well as an engineering degree (B.Eng.) and two economics degrees (B.A. summa cum laude, M.A.) from Canada’s McMaster University.
